Adult Programs

Recording of Fall in Love with Tour de France Available now through October 2

On Thursday, August 27, Christina Uss presented Fall in Love with Tour de France live via Zoom for Storrs Library. Christina generously agreed to allow this program to be recorded, and we're excited to present it to you! This video will be available from now through Friday, October 2. Please register at longmeadowlibrary.org to access this recording.

Join Storrs Library for an historic look at the Tour de France with our own Christina Uss! We'll discuss some of the most exciting high points since 1903, what to watch in this year's race, and why this 2,000+-mile race still captivates cycling fans around the world annually. This year's race was postponed from the spring and now will run from August 29 - September 20, 2020.

Storrs library assistant and children's book author Christina Uss is excited to take you on a ride through the 117-year history of this epic race. She's been a Tour de France fan for decades, sneakily working the nicknames of famous Tour riders into her first book, The Adventures of a Girl Called Bicycle. Christina can't wait to talk to you about The Cannibal.

Virtual Forum with Senator Lesser

Tuesday, September 15 at 6:30

Join Storrs Library for an open discussion online with State Senator Eric Lesser of First Hampden and Hampshire District. Senator Lesser will be discussing current issues affecting our community, and taking questions from audience members. This program will be recorded in order to be made available to people who missed the live session. Senator Lesser's office will be broadcasting the live event on Facebook as well.

You are encouraged to bring your questions and discussion points to this program. You are welcome to turn on your camera and/or microphone if you have them, but this is not required to participate. The registration form includes a field to submit questions for Senator Lesser.

We'll be using Zoom for this presentation. You'll need a computer, smartphone, iPad, or similar device that has a camera and audio ability.

Register in advance at longmeadowlibrary.org. You'll receive an email invitation to join shortly before the program begins.
