Youth Programs

Grow Play Learn sponsored by Pathways for Parents
(18-36 months)
Wednesday, October 21
9:30 on Zoom

This program and manipulatives are provided by Pathways for Parents. Come Zoom with us for stories, songs, and skill-building with manipulatives led by an Early Childhood Developmental trained staff member. This program is geared for children from 18 to 36 months with a caregiver. October's theme is Colors.

Registration is limited and required in advance for the month of October. The Ages and Stages Questionnaire must be completed before the first session. Registered participants will receive a set of Blocks to keep and use during the program that can be picked up during Curbside Services on Mondays and Wednesday from 3-6 and Saturday from 12-3. Register in advance at longmeadowlibrary.org. You'll receive an email invitation to join shortly before the program begins.

This program uses the Zoom platform, and you will need a computer, smartphone, iPad, or similar device that has a camera and audio ability.

This program is sponsored by Pathways for Parents. Pathways for Parents is administered by Ludlow Public Schools and is funded by the Coordinated Family Community Engagement Grant through the Massachusetts Department of Early Education and Care.

Families in Harmony with Renee Coro Friday, October 23 3:30 on Zoom

Families in Harmony Level Two for children ages 5-8 is a music-based, mindfulness program assisting children in becoming more aware of the present moment focusing on both their physical and emotional well-being.

This innovative program will teach the participants simple techniques including but not limited to singing, instrumental play, songwriting, breathe work, and creative movement to integrate a mind-body experience fostering the healthy identification and expression of emotions. We will demonstrate and practice techniques that can support a healthier mental well-being in today's challenging world. Registration at longmeadowlibrary.org is required for this four-part series.

Join us for a virtual program using the Zoom platform. You will need a computer, smartphone, iPad, or similar device that has a camera and audio ability.

Longmeadow and the Woman's Suffrage Movement

Wednesday, October 21
6:30 on Zoom

Cosponsored by Storrs Library and Longmeadow Historical Society

Melissa Cybulski from the Longmeadow Historical Society presents a fascinating look at the history of Longmeadow and the Woman's Suffrage Movement. Melissa will look at how the community of Longmeadow responded to the decades long struggle for women's voting equality. How did residents truly feel about the issue?

Melissa M. Cybulski is a guide at The Emily Dickinson Museum and a board member of the Longmeadow Historical Society. She has previously presented on the life of Sarah Storrs.

Co-sponsored by Longmeadow Historical Society and Storrs Library.

We'll be using Zoom for this presentation. You'll need a computer, smartphone, iPad, or similar device that has a camera and audio ability.

Register in advance at longmeadowlibrary.org. You'll receive an email invitation to join shortly before the program begins.
