What's Happening in Adult Next Week at Storrs Library

Dates: May 8–May 14, 2022

Art Exhibit

Visit Storrs Library to view the art of Ernst Zobel. This gallery of acrylic landscape collage and assemblages will be on exhibit through the month of May. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Saturday, May 7th from 1:00-3:30 PM.

The exhibit is available for viewing anytime the room is not in use.

Community Donation Drive

Hat Not Hate was launched in 2018 as an antibullying campaign founded by Shira Blumenthal. Handmade blue hats are created, collected and distributed to schools nationwide, educating the students about the message of kindness. The color blue represents awareness, peace and solidarity. Blue is the color to wear in solidarity of anti-bullying. For more information, check out hatnothate.org.

Hat Not Hate is looking for a wide range of hat sizes (for ages 5-18), most sizes are appropriate, i.e. ranging from 16 inches to 20 inches in circumference. Hats should be handmade using any blue yarn and should be at least 75% blue.

Storrs Library will be collecting your hand knit or crocheted blue hats until Tuesday, May 31st.

Author Talk with Deborah SCHUPACK Wednesday, May 11, 6:30-7:30

Journalist and novelist Deborah Schupack will discuss her latest book, Relentless: How a Leading New York City Health System Mobilized to Battle the Greatest Health Crisis of Our Era, a behind-the-scenes look at the Mount Sinai Health System's remarkable response to the COVID-19 pandemic - which struck New York City early and hard. Deborah, who grew up in Longmeadow, interviewed more than 100 hospital leaders, doctors, nurses, scientists, staff and patients to capture how healthcare workers were blindsided by the largely unknown virus, sped research discoveries to the bedside, and learned lessons for future pandemics.

"Between life and death there is a library, and within that library, the shelves go on forever. Every book provides a chance to try another life you could have lived. To see how things would be if you had made other choices... Would you have done anything different, if you had the chance to undo your regrets? Somewhere out beyond the edge of the universe there is a library that contains an infinite number of books, each one the story of another reality. One tells the story of your life as it is, along with another book for the other life you could have lived if you had made a different choice at any point in your life. While we all wonder how our lives might have been, what if you had the chance to go to the library and see for yourself? Would any of these other lives truly be better? In The Midnight Library, Nora Seed finds herself faced with this decision. Faced with the possibility of changing her life for a new one, following a different career, undoing old breakups, realizing her dreams of becoming a glaciologist; she must search within herself as she travels through the Midnight Library to decide what is truly fulfilling in life, and what makes it worth living in the first place"-- C/WMARS

Copies of this month's book selection are available at Storrs Library, as well as online in our OverDrive catalog.
