April's book selection is Varina by Charles Frazier

"Her marriage prospects limited, teenage Varina Howell agrees to wed the much-older widower Jefferson Davis, with whom she expects the secure life of a Mississippi landowner. Davis instead pursues a career in politics and is eventually appointed president of the Confederacy, placing Varina at the white-hot center of one of the darkest moments in American history" - C/WMARS

Copies of this month's book selection are available at Storrs Library, as well as online in our OverDrive catalog.

Advance Registration is required.

Weekly Writers Group

Thursday, April 13, 9:30–11:00

You're invited to join the Weekly Writing Group!

The Writers Group is a welcoming place to share and grow as a writer while being listened to and supported. Each week members share a page or two of their writing from that week and then join in a ten minutes writing exercise with sharing and discussion afterwards.

The Writers Group meets every Thursday at 9:30 am on the second floor of the library. This group is intended for adults.

Literatour at the JCC: Once We Were Home by Jennifer ROSNER

Author Talk and Q&A
Jennifer Rosner
Thursday, April 13, 2023 7:00 PM | In Person at the J
(1160 Dickinson Street, Springfield, MA)

The stories of a brother and sister from Poland, a boy concealed from Nazis in France, and a refugee daughter from Germany are drawn together two decades later in Israel. They are each building lives for themselves, trying to move on from the trauma and loss that haunts them. But as their stories converge in unexpected ways, they each must ask where and to whom they truly belong.

Pre-registration is required.
This event is free and open to the public. To register, visit SpringfieldJCC.org, scan the QR code below, or call the J at (413) 739-4715 x315.

Co-sponsored by the Western Massachusetts Jewish Genealogical Society and Richard Salter Storrs Library.

Jennifer Rosner's previous novel, The Yellow Bird Sings, was a Massachusetts Finalist Honors Book and a National Jewish Book Award Finalist in the debut fiction and book club categories. She lives in Leverett, MA with her family.

Join us over at the JCC as Jennifer Rosner talks about her newest book, Once We Were Home. The stories of a brother and sister from Poland, a boy concealed from Nazis in France, and a refugee daughter from Germany are drawn together two decades later in Israel. They are each building lives for themselves, trying to move on from the trauma and loss that haunts them. But as their stories converge in unexpected ways, they each must ask where and to whom they truly belong.

This event is free and open to the public. To register, visit The Springfield JCC website or call the J at (413) 739-4715 x-315.

This event is co-sponsored by the Springfield JCC, Western Massachusetts Jewish Genealogical Society, and Richard Salter Storrs Library.
