Lessons in Chemistry. It's the early 1960s and Elizabeth's all-male team at Hastings Research Institute takes a very unscientific view of equality, all except Calvin Evans, the lonely, brilliant, Nobel-prize nominated grudge-holder who falls in love with, of all things, her mind. But like science, life is unpredictable and a few years later Elizabeth finds herself a single mother and reluctant star of the cooking show, Supper at Six. Her unusual approach to cooking proves revolutionary; as it turns out, she isn't just teaching women to cook, she's daring them to change the status quo.

Register by calling the Adult Center at 413-565-4150.
