This Summer, the Music Appreciation program which began last Fall will conclude with a focus on music since 1830, marking the complete transition to the Romantic Era and beyond in music history, triggered by the robust, more emotional style of Beethoven relative to the music before him. Rob Humberston will cover music developing in some of the major national music centers of Europe, including Russia, Scandinavia, and Britain. By the end of August, we will cap our survey with ideas driving some of the music of the 20th Century. Please join us as we enjoy some memorable music. This is not the end: There will be new programs beginning in September as well, with more information to come.

Registration in advance is preferred, this program is intended for adults.

Sword Basics with Castle Nitor Thursday, August 17, 1:30–2:30

Do you dream of being a hero or knight? European sword fighting is a martial art that died out once Europeans started using guns exclusively. The good news is that manuals survived to tell us how they fought.

Come get hands-on with history with Castle Nitor. Learn the basics of German Longsword fighting. Discover a fun way to exercise, discover and practice a lost art form. Enjoy a break in a different time!

This class is run by Allison, the Lady of Castle Nitor; she is a history lover who collects craft skills and loves teaching and creating a fun, relaxing environment for all. Castle Nitor is bringing daily life and the arts of the past to life again.

This program is sponsored by the Friends of Storrs Library.

You must be age 12 or older in order to participate in this program. Please register in advance.
