Wednesday, August 9, 1:00–2:30

Read More/Register

Join us every Wednesday as we listen to beautiful music in performances by artists and ensembles and their conductors renowned for their interpretations of these works.

This Summer, the Music Appreciation program which began last Fall will conclude with a focus on music since 1830, marking the complete transition to the Romantic Era and beyond in music history, triggered by the robust, more emotional style of Beethoven relative to the music before him. Rob Humberston will cover music developing in some of the major national music centers of Europe, including Russia, Scandinavia, and Britain. By the end of August, we will cap our survey with ideas driving some of the music of the 20th Century. Please join us as we enjoy some memorable music. This is not the end: There will be new programs beginning in September as well, with more information to come.

Registration in advance is preferred, this program is intended for adults.
