who would like to try new recipes and share their prepared dish. Every month is a food bonanza as we sample the many different recipes prepared by others. Novice cooks are always welcome!

Along with your delicious dish, please bring 24 cookies for a Cookie Swap!

We will meet in the Betty Ann Low Room. Advance Registration Required. Bring your creation, your comments, and your critiques to share with the group!

This month you are invited to bring your favorite recipe and a list of chefs or cookbooks you would like to explore in 2024!

Music Appreciation with Rob HUMBERSTON

Wednesday, December 20, 1:00–2:30

Read More/Register

Rob Humberston returns for another year of musical listening and exploration by way of his personal collection of recordings built over five decades. One unique aspect of his collection is the inclusion of recordings based on historically informed performance practices, often utilizing instruments - both original and in reproduction - appropriate to the time of the composition.

December will highlight the music of Christmas through the ages, and the New Year will begin with the Baroque Era and continue to the 20th Century. Please join us for another year of beautiful music among collegial participants.

Please Register in Advance. This program is intended for adults.

A Writer's Night at the Adult Center

Thursday, December 21, 6:45–7:45

The Longmeadow Adult Center and Straw Dog Writers Guild is delighted to present "A Writer's Night."

Jovonna Van Pelt, poet and essayist, is the author of a gorgeous book of poetry, Unrelated Questions (published in 2019) and an endearing book of Christmas Stories (published last fall). Her holiday tales and poems are a wonderful mix of smart, funny, and touching; just what we all need. Please come and get the Holiday Spirit! (And there might be elves.)

Register by calling 413-565-4150, option 1. Or tell the person at the desk you're going to "A Writer's Night."

The Longmeadow Adult Center is located at 211 Maple Road, Longmeadow
