Join us for a fun cooking class to learn how hearty and satisfying soups and stews can be when making your own homemade soup. We will make Minestrone Soup and Lentil Stew, and learn the many ways to change these up to get your family eating healthier options.

Jennifer Marcks is a certified Gluten-Free Health Coach and founder of Gluten-Free Marcks the Spot, where she teaches you to create a sustainable and delicious gluten-free lifestyle that just becomes routine. There is no reason to live in deprivation when cutting things from your plate. You CAN continue to eat in a delicious and healthy manner. "When you change your plate, you change your health, you change your life."

Jennifer lives gluten-free with all three of her children. Therefore, all of the recipes shared are gluten-free and dairy-free - but don't let that scare you away! Come learn how gluten-free cooking can be healthy and delicious!

This program is sponsored by the Friends of Storrs Library.

This is a Zoom program. Please register in advance and the link will be emailed to you shortly before the program begins.

collection is the inclusion of recordings based on historically informed performance practices, often utilizing instruments - both original and in reproduction - appropriate to the time of the composition.

The New Year will begin with the Baroque Era and continue to the 20th Century. Please join us for another year of beautiful music among collegial participants. Topics will include: musical forms; chant; historical musical instruments; specific genres of music; geographical considerations; and selected composers.

Please Register in Advance. This program is intended for adults.

Weekly Writers Group

Thursday, February 1, 9:30-11:00

You're invited to join the Weekly Writing Group!

The Writers Group is a welcoming place to share and grow as a writer while being listened to and supported. Each week members share a page or two of their writing from that week and then join in a ten minutes writing exercise with sharing and discussion afterwards.

The Writers Group meets every Thursday at 9:30 am on the second floor of the library. This group is intended for adults.
