The Town's trail consultants Conservation Works will present their draft final report regarding recommendations for trail maintenance and improvements in Laurel Park, Bliss Park, Turner Park, the Fannie Stebbins Memorial/Silvio O. Conte Wildlife Refuge, and around the Gasek Farm conservation area. This presentation follows their October presentation regarding the conditions of these public trails. This meeting will provide an opportunity for interested parties to preview the recommended maintenance actions and the associated recommended budget. These recommended projects will be prioritized based on community feedback from the October meeting and the severity of concern the problem poses. For those wishing to review the information presented at the October meeting, you can watch the recording on LCTV's YouTube channel linked here.

The meeting will take place in the Betty Ann Low Meeting Room at Storrs Library.

Registration is appreciated to guarantee your seat.

January's book selection - The Art of Hearing Heartbeats by Jan-Philipp sendker

Summary of Book Selection - "When a successful New York lawyer suddenly disappears without a trace, neither his wife nor his daughter Julia has any idea where he might be...until they find a love letter he wrote many years ago, to a Burmese woman they have never heard of. Intent on solving the mystery and coming to terms with her father's past, Julia decides to travel to the village where the woman lived. There she uncovers a tale of unimaginable hardship, resilience, and passion that will reaffirm the reader's belief in the power of love to move mountains."-- C/WMARS

Copies of this month's book selection are available at Storrs Library, as well as online in our Libby catalog.

Advanced registration is required.

Music Appreciation with Rob HUMBERSTON

Wednesday, January 10, 1:00–2:30

Read More/Register

Rob Humberston returns for another year of musical listening and exploration by way of his personal collection of recordings built over five decades. One unique aspect of his collection is the inclusion of recordings based on historically informed performance practices, often utilizing instruments - both original and in reproduction - appropriate to the time of the composition.

The New Year will begin with the Baroque Era and continue to the 20th Century. Please join us for another year of beautiful music among collegial participants. Topics will include: musical forms; chant; historical musical instruments; specific genres of music; geographical considerations; and selected composers.

Please Register in Advance. This program is intended for adults.
